Infosys Foundation

The Infosys Foundation was established in 1996 to support programs in the areas of education, rural development, healthcare, women empowerment, arts and culture, and destitute care. Its mission is to work with the underprivileged across the country and strive towards a more equitable society. The Infosys Foundation takes pride in working with all sections of society, selecting projects with infinite care, and working in areas that are traditionally overlooked by society at large.

Infosys Foundation, under their CSR activity, supported Bhavan's vision and mission in promoting the rare and endangered arts, and to help the artists and art forms.

Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan

Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan was established in the year 1938 by Kulapati Dr. K.M. Munshi as an intellectual, cultural and educational movement based on India's rich wisdom and heritage. The Bhavan has been carrying India's glorious culture and heritage to all parts of the world with its ideal of "Vasudeiva Kutumbakam" which means "The world is one family" and its motto "Aa no Bhadraah Kratavo Yantu Vishvatah" which means "Let noble thoughts come to us from every side".

As of today, the Bhavan has more than 100 Kendras and runs more than 450 educational institutions, from schools to colleges with separate departments for Music, Dance, Yoga and Sanskrit to promote Indian values. The Bhavan has over 2000 publications on subjects ranging from Indian philosophy, epics, history, culture, politics, economy, music, dance, drama and so on.
